

Meeting at Michigan Sheep Spectacular
Misc. Notes from Meeting

Introduction of Board

Points Challenge Members introduced.

Tax Status denied in 2004.

Application fee to reapply is $300.00

Could take 2 to 6 months, the organization could face fines up to $2000.00

Tracy Braun – Introduced a motion to go forward with tax exempt status and pay $300.00.

Jeff Walters - Seconded

John Schut – Almost ready to give recommendation for by-law changes, due at The points challenge meeting.

Discussion on the bred ewe sale, flyers to be sent to each county fair.

Discussion with regard to the funds for the sale. Only to disburse ½ of the budget which is 700.00 due to the tax exempt status and the boar goat association putting their money in up front. Entry fee to be $15.00 per head, $10.00 pen fee. Out of state sheep will be accepted.

Laura Bonam gave an update on the youth challenge.

MCLA membership discussed the opportunity to post a single 8X10 web page with 2 to 3 pictures. If interested please contact Laura Bonam or Mike Moore for more information.

Possible new programs for 2008.

King & Queen Competition

Fitting and Showing Clinic – Older teens to help with camp

Possible April or May – Judy Moore and Tracey Dettinger were recommended for additional information.

It was asked if the bred ewe sale could allow for the sale of used equipment, can space be rented to sell other items. Question was to be taken to the bred ewe sale committee.

Tracy Braun motioned to adjourn the meeting.

Seconded by Sara Rossell